well there's no faith left to be saved well there's no face I stand to lose if I play this game with you see, so what? is what I want to think and I'm happy for anything to happen here while there's some time left I could share

oh leave me in love
leave me

well there's no pride left to stop this fall well there's no time to stop what I expect stop what I came here for it's just a laugh now please don't cry see I've made up my mind so what? is what I want to think and I'm happy for anything to happen here
while there's some time left I could share

leave me
leave me without a care

in love without a care
in love
in love without a care
oh leave me here while there's some time time left I could share
