Dressed up, whats a movement?
I can't control, I can't confess my fear
I don't don't, everybody has a reason to call them all too young
You cut me off too young Messed up, am I moving?
I can control, but I can't predict my years
I fall so fast and careless, it's just something I do oh

It's not like we don't know what we're fighting for

Dearly departed
Certain tragedy when we started off
We were such an indestructible team when you had your plans, I had my dream

Lessons that I'm learning, I have the world suspended in my hands
You know we kill it teamed up, just me and you girl

It's not like we don't know what we're fighting for

Dearly departed
Certain tragedy when we started off
We were such an indestructible team when you had
your plans, I had my dream
Dearly departed
You know you messed things up, that's how you lost my trust
And now you're lost and it's all because you were not strong enough

With progress we forget
How come this always happens to me?
It's such a sudden tragedy

Hey
Wishin', listen
Looking out for me slippin'
Switchin' on a steady course
Devoted to emotions and no one even knows it

I know you him, that is how you lost me

Dearly departed

Certain tragedy when we started off

We were such an indestructible team when you had

Dearly departed

You know you messed things up, that's how you lost my
trust

And now you're lost and it's all because you were not
strong enough

With progress we forget

How come this always happens to me?

It's such a sudden tragedy
