Verse 1:

You get a pen and I'll get a paper
We're gonna write ourselves a song
We'll drive the poetics crazy
I don't think the damn thing's gonna rhyme

Verse 2:

I got a friend and I think he's goofy
I guess he thinks the same about me
Guess it really takes one to know one
And you look like an old friend of mine (kind of short red headed)

Verse 3:

Out all night and acting crazy
I've been up for two whole days
Turn me over and roll me over
Wind me up for one more rhyme

Verse 4:

Well he called me friend and he called me brother
I called him back but he was gone (I didn't call him nothing)
He took my songs and he took my money
But the jokes on him he's the friend of a fool, of a fool, of a fool

Verse 5:

You get a pen and I'll get a paper
We're gonna steal ourselves a song
We'll drive the poetics crazy
The damn thing just might rhyme
Eat your heart out Fred Carter, Chet Atkins, Don Bowman, Grady Martin Kris Kristofferson ...
