Verse 1:

I'm gonna change my ways of doing things around here
I'm turning over a new leaf, gonna get myself in gear Cause I've got a woman who's better than most
And I've made a mess of her plans
So starting today all I'm gonna be is her man

Chorus:

I've been a wild catter and a go-go getter
Been an SOB right down to the letter
I've had misadventures, I even got pictures
Of even more than I can stand
So starting today all I want a be is her man

Verse 2:

I'm gonna give it all back, 'cause all I've done is take I've put her on the back burner while I was out on the make
But I've got a woman who's good enough
To give me a second chance again
So starting today all I'm gonna be is her man

Chorus.

I'm a little bit late, but I'm wising up
I'm taking her by the hand
Starting today all I want a be is her man
