Verse 1:

Well, I'm sick and tired of wakin' up sick and tired
As of today there's gonna be some changes made
Well, you might as well keep your feet on the ground
'Cause I won't stand still for your movin' around
It's high time you quit your lowdown ways

Verse 2:

Anything to the talk I hear over town?
Is it really true, girl, that you go on the deck up and down?
Now, the word as well as I can recall:
Everywhere you've been, you've been the belle of the ball
It's high time you quit your lowdown ways

Verse 3:

I remember one time, now, way back down on the farm
My daddy had a Dominaker hen, but she wouldn't stay home
Well now, she could fly higher than a jet airplane
But not after Daddy clipped her little ol' wings
It's high time you quit your lowdown ways
