i thought you were everything that you went for everything but you wanted more i guess it wasn't quite enough i did everything that you asked me too everything that i could do

i shouldve acted like a hopeless pessimist cause i know that your a sucker for that type and if i told you i was gunna kill myself maybe then you'd comfort me and hold me tight
...well i am i took you every place that you wanted to go every single place that i know

i told you everything that you wanted to hear i said "i love you" in your ear

cause i know that your a sucker for that type
and if i told you i was gunna kill myself

no matter what i do ill never be with you and if it ends that way i guess ill be okay
