Woman: I hope you find someone who likes your brown eyes and crooked smile. I hope you find someone who laughs at all your jokes and finds you funny

Chorus: You take yours and I'll take mine, and we'll agree to pass the time. You on your way and me on mine, I like my life just fine

Man: I hope you find someone who likes waltzing to the radio. I hope you find someone who knows how to let you go

Chorus: You take yours and I'll take mine, and we'll agree to pass the time. You on your way and me on mine, I like my life just fine

WomanMan: I hope you find someone who likes talking late till two in the morning. I hope you find someone who'll always agree with your point of view

Chorus: You take yours and I'll take mine, and we'll agree to pass the time. You on your way and me on mine, I like my life just fine

Both simultaneously, or Man, then Woman: I hope I find someone who won't disagree with all the ways I like to be I hope I find someone who will see all the beauty that's inside of me.

Chorus: You take yours and I'll take mine, and we'll agree to pass the time. You on your way and me on mine, I like my life just fine
