"In The Shire"

You can't get any more higher, (oh really?) than a sunset in the Shire Summer is turning to fall, it is time we get two feet tall! (again?) {oh yeah}
Mrs Maggot, we want to thank you for the 'shrooms
But we are lost now, never had a chance to read the runes
It's so deceiving at the midpoint,
Had to give up to give it all
And we've concluded, these folks and not too very tall.
And the senses are waiting . . .
I'll meet you on the other side - in the Shire Reach to feel what's there inside - in the Shire Don't you wonder where you are - in the Shire.
Shire nights are full of stars - in the Shire
