Is it mere coincidence
That you and we are innocent
Or is it all a fantasy
Turning to reality

6and6and6 may find
We can see he leads the blind
The road is clear.....always near
Leading those of us who hear

For the Puppets never know
So the Puppets never grow

Can't you see the shocking signs
The fallen angel bides his time
And do you think you've got it made
When you lose and buy the trade

For the Puppets never know
So the Puppets never grow

Will you see the coming now
The coming now

So if you fear the dark of night
Feel the sun absorb it's light
Be with one and one with all
Forever high above the wall

For the Puppets never know
So the Puppets never grow

Will you see the coming now.....
