They say it's just a thing you have to go through
Another girl is bound to satisfy you
Maybe so but it seems like everything is wrong
Every day it gets harder to get along

'Til I Get You Back
There are things to say I don't even know
'Til I Get You Back

And every now and then I think it's alright
It sure is gettin' hard to make up my mind
I used to think it would be so nice to be free
I get along but it's not where I want to be

'Til I Get You Back
It seems that love belongs to another day
'Til I Get You Back

And when I get the chance you know I'm gonna say
You really got me I can't stand to stay away oh no
'Cause every night I just want to whisper your name
Now I know baby nothing can be the same

'Til I Get You Back
There are things to say I don't even know
'Til I Get You Back
