Album : Seven Minutes in Heaven gray skies well hello television my best friend turning answers into questions and then every night it's hello bed sleep grant me one last dream of that last night spent on the couch and the last words heard from your mouth when life tripped me I only fell in love with you in mind you're with me but it's been a month since I've seen you and your voice inspired me to write this song and when you went away you took my heart along and I see others in love and it's not fair called your house to hear your voice and you're not there it's hard to tell whether or not you even care that i want you back and i want you back
