Album : Seven Minutes in Heaven well is it too soon to say that over time we lose our minds or at least our speech and sight cause i know that I've been there and I've done that and I'm ashamed to find that I've mistaked the finest things in life and that's life you watched me build this kingdom well then ashes to ashes it all falls down but relax don't worry cause when this heart is breaking you won't hear a sound it's like walking in circles we're getting around and it came right from your mouth and it says yeah you've been there and you've done that and well it hurts me you think it comes so easily and I'm broken, beaten so my pride's been eaten still my foot's in my mouth I wish I would have known the situation like I know then what I know right now I'd take it slow, but I am full responsible for every single tear drop from your eye it's safe to say we're giving up and this is the way

'cause every single dream has died so I take it back
