Have you heard the man singing in my room TV silent ? has he ever been trusted and by whom was he disabled?
Inspirations in the silence get wild I shut the light said goodnight but he just smiled
and he lay down next to me

In peace and thankfulness
I observe my consciousness
and you couldn't care less about me my dear Miss foolishness

he drew a line said fine that seems to be arranged all in vain
and his check out time now is subject to change as he keeps missing his only train wont you kiss me here before i go so i put my lips to his hands to satisfy his demands
and he lay down next to me

In peace and thankfulness
I observe my consciousness
and you couldn't care less about me my dear
Miss foolishness

Don't you hesitate once the seeds are sown Don't you try to look for them in the burning snow where he's sleeping next to me

In peace and thankfulness
I observe my consciousness
and you couldn't care less about me my dear
Miss foolishness
