Long day's done another morning
Another deep cold trance
Would you like to survive?
Why not?
Then don't die
Sexy faretheewell wave the netline hands
Redline eyes
Barely standing on the right foot
Chatting with the sun
Her bus is gone
Cool
I remember some time ago
You jumped out in the crazy world
I remember some time ago
You were not quite sure if you were screwed
Or not if not then why
Are you so sad are you so shy
Getting scared of cold kisses
Something's missing
And it's cool

So my heart celebrating morning
Just a little warning
This celebration rules
