"Ram Nam"

Waiting at the cloud today
Creating all the birds and light
He will surely break the laws
Gonna hold you tight

Almost every moment god is there
Where your eyes are where dead is sound
He will surely disobey
Gonna steal away
Gonna go away

Don't you stop your fasting
It is the 52-day
Its only life that counts so stay cool
Leave the woods now

Rise rise skybound host
My time time count is lost
Id rather swallow down just once
Don't give us guns

Go back where you came from
We'll erase your file

One more smile will kill us on time
All of you must have a clue
Why you made that deal with the world
Now what
Ram nam tat sat
