"Reminiscence Of A Funny Face" i'm the clown of a local circus and im concerned to make you laugh people come and seem so happy but for me its not enough i used to be a child like you but somehow all went wrong i tried to find myself everywhere but i couldnt be that strong and i wanna be a clown just for you i wanna be a clown just for you...

the joker woke up wide eyes so surprised creator creator he said i realised my jokes are nothing when i see what you have done out of your love you were having fun but i wanna be a clown just for you...

buy a ticket come to my place im gonna show you a funny face running out running in with a big red nose and a stupid grin im doing what you want me to do but i wanna be a clown just for you....
