:Where did i turn so wrong
Time drags me along
Though I know just where I went
And my time was well spent
I keep on coming back to you
My memories in blue

Sin will scorch your soul
So we've all been told
Though I'm not an easy man to fool
And i always keep my cool
I cant help but wondering if its true
Cause i got memories in blue

Tears in her eyes
The echo of her cries
They will ring out into the eternity

Some might call it theft
To take all I have left
I sit and whatch 'em go
To where I do not know
All i know is they wont run off with you
My memories in blue :
