Mikey's got a brand new knife
He brings it along to the fight everybody say, woo
His heart ignites like high octane
A young man's blood flow down the drain, woo

Now he's scared and on the run
His drapes are closed and he can't see the sun, woo
On night he's out to score some herb
The law comes around and puts his face to the curb, say woo

Mikey hang your head and cry
But don't ask why
The world is much to big for you to turn
But you gave in, you let it burn

And the world keeps turning,
Round and around and around it goes
And the world keeps turning, babe,
Round and around and around and around

Nancy's got a brand new guy
She gets respect cause hes big and wild, say woo
Then one she spoke her mind
He broke her nose and he gave her a black eye, woo

Nancy hang your head and cry
But don't ask why
Be careful what you wish for, baby blue
These guys you want just might come true

And the world keeps turning,
Round and around and around it goes
Yes the world keeps turning, babe,
Round and around and around and around x3
