I don't understand why people talk so much talk beside your mouth always with your nose up in my business people mind your own let us put aside the negatives focus on the good we can lift each other to the skies lean on me like they told you all you need to know about me yeah like you know me well enough to judge

Ref: Words come easily
spreading rumors that just wont do
word they do come easily and they sure do get around
words come easily

I don't understand why you wont let me ride a hundred up the hill always putting sticks into my wheels oh no people cut that shit out yes i know that life is ruff sometimes but let me tell you this whining like punk that just wont help slap yourself
you keep spreading all these types of shit about me yeah but im rolling on while you are stuck

Ref

I don't understand do you get of on this whispering around the town dude you've got too much time on your hands man just find a job you don't dig me that's just fine by me mmm cause yet and still you just wanna smell my dirty drawers you nasty fool all im here for is just to make you swing so common yeah man just face it that weÂ´re some rambling men yeah
