Visit "A Humble Girl" on MotoLyrics.com

I was young now time's gone
Oh, what do i do?
He was mine for some time
Now this girl is blue...

And all the love that we earned
Has been forsaken
And all the depths of my world
Have been awoken

What is life without him?
Please, what should i do?
I was just a humble girl
Who got lost in your world

I will cross a thousand seas
To forget that boy

And all the love that we earned
Has been forsaken
And all the depths of my world
Have been awoken

Oh, i love him...
Please, just kiss me again...cause i'll never...
I'll never fall in love, no ever...
I wanna be in love forever...
