When I see your face, When I see your face
It makes me warmer when it's cold outside
When I feel your taste, when I feel your taste
I remember that Im made of you
I wanna run away, I wanna run away
And be always right there by your side
What I feel inside, What I feel inside
I don't feel no blues

You make me wanna holla
You make me wanna wanna
Wanna love you
You make me wanna holla
Wanna love you

You know what to say, You know what to say
When Im stranded you can find a way
Standing in the rain, waiting for a train
That will naver come...
I wanna store away, wanna store away
For december, when it's cold and dark
I wanna be right, don't you wanna be tight...

You make me wanna holla
You make me wanna wanna
wanna love you
You make me wanna holla
wanna love you

I and I know its right, cause you cant be wrong
My heart cant think where it dont belong
And all this time, and all this space
Your face can't hide what your heart just said
Traveling on this crazy ship of fools
And all I want is to be next to you...

You make me wanna holla
You make me wanna wanna
wanna love you
You make me wanna holla
wanna love you

You make me wanna wanna
wanna love you

You make me wanna holla
You make me wanna wanna
Wanna love you...

You make me wanna holla
wanna love you

You make me wanna wanna
wanna love you

You make me wanna holla
wanna love you....
