Pass it off as trial and error
Something only left behind
Walk the line between love and terror
Home again alone tonight

You could have a celebration
And you could celebrate
You could have a celebration
Come on now we celebrate today
Hey..ah..hey yeah today...hey..yeah today

Well I am not a secret agent
I've got nothing left to hide
Will you put your art in danger
Will you risk it by my side

Will you join my celebration
Come on now we'll celebrate
We could have a celebration
Come on now we'll celebrate today
Hey..ah..hey yeah today...hey..yeah today

We'll burn it down and build it over
Something with a sweeter taste
Take the burden off your shoulders
We haven't got the years to waste

And we could have a celebration
Yeah we'll celebrate
We could have a celebration
Come on now we'll celebrate today
Hey..ah..hey yeah today...hey..yeah
We could have a celebration
Come on now we'll celebrate today
Hey..ah..hey yeah today...hey..yeah
