I looked at you and you looked at me have we got it going on?
I'm stuck on you coz you're lookin easy you really turn me on and you've infected me with your disease now i can't break free

your eyes imprison me

you're too good to tell
give up
get out
and come round to mine
and take off your make up
come back to mine tonight
but don't take off your clothes oh and in the morning time when you finally wake up wait til the light and take back the life that you sold

haev we got it going on?
i'm stuck on you coz you're looking easy

but you've infected me with your disease and i can't break free your eyes imprison me well i can't break free
