There's always too much time I can spend on my own,
Sitting by the river and watching it flow,
Am I gonna get a woman, only time will tell,
I'm getting lonely sitting by myself

You could come and see me tonight,
Oh, you could come and see me tonight

If you're looking for a new direction,
Turn to me,
And if you're looking for an explanation,
Listen to the wild wind whistling through the trees

Stay in tune to the wavelength,
Nature calling at your heart,
You'd like to hit the road you see,
But you can't on account of lukewarm ice cream

You can come and see me tonight,
Why don't you come and see me tonight

If you're looking for new foundations,
Why don't you come and find me,
And if you're looking for an explanation,
Listen to the wild wind whistling through the trees

Don't listen to me,
Listen, listen, listen, listen to me,
Don't listen, listen, listen, listen to me,
Spin around you won't see me

I'm getting lonely sitting by myself,
There's only so much time I can spend on my own,
Getting bored, all alone,
You can come and see me tonight,
Why don't you come and make things right

If you're looking for new foundations,
Why don't you come and find me,
Listen to the wild wind whistling through the trees

Don't listen to me,
Listen, listen, listen, listen to me,
Don't listen, listen, listen, listen to me,
It's a question of the birds and the bees...
1, 2, 3

Don't listen, listen, listen, listen to me
Don't listen, listen, listen, listen to me
Don't listen, listen, listen, listen to me
Don't listen, listen, listen, listen to me
