I wanna tell you that I like you
But I'm scared to
I want you to come to me
So I can show you to the world
I like the way I wake up to
A text that says, good morning
Sunshine sunshine

Your eyes, your blue eyes
Shine so bright like the night sky
Like the stars that light
Up with the big, bright, white moon
You lighten up my day
In any way you can
Just to see, just to see my smile

So, tell me your secrets
Tell me about your life
I wanna know you,
I wanna know you,
I wanna know you
Tell me anything, anything at all
I just wanna hear you,
Hear you,
Hear you

I love those late nights
Those dark nights in the field
Watching the stars go by
As the butterflies flutter in my stomach
I like the stories you tell me
About the sweet fairy-tales
About you and me

So, tell me your secrets
Tell me about your life
I wanna know you,
I wanna know you,
I wanna know you
Tell me anything, anything at all
I just wanna hear you,

Hear you,
Hear you
