I can tell in your eyes exactly where you go,
Cause I have been to every distant constellation,
To see you again
In the world of my mind,
There's nothing I wouldn't do,
To cast away

I know it's like a trip for me too far,
Moving forward, faster, into my imagination,
Let it run, away with me,
I know your love is perfect like the stars,
When we're together, here in my imagination,
Let it run away with me, away with me
Away with me

With every thought,
The journey begins again,
And we will go on,
Chasing the endless box of creation,
That holds me for hours,
There's a rising sun along the dark horizon,
As im driving through the flow of the rain

It's like a trip,
Into my imagination,
Let it run,
And you know your love is perfect,
Here in my imagination,
I let it run,
Away with me,
Away with me,
Away with me,
Away with me,
Let it run,

I know it's like a trip for me too far,
Moving forward, faster, into my imagination,
Let it run, away with me,
I know your love is perfect like the stars,
When we're here together, here in my imagination,
Let it run, away with me, away with me

Let it run,
Away with me
I let it run, run, run,
Away with me,
Away with me
