There are days
when things wont go my way turn around and just wanna say good bye to you forever and always if you wanna be like this to me

its done were through together me and you
words have been said and now thats all we have its just me and you from now on forever together just me and you but the days go by and the words are said but we never wanna end like this we go to bed but say we're sorry first we never end on one bad note we keep on going cause thats all we know together so long and this is how we go from day to day this how we are turn around and there you are you say i love you hun and i say it too together me and you 10 long years and 20 more yet to come loving you is what i'm meant to do

There are days when i wanna hide there are times when i wanna leave you but every new day brings a new way to say i love you and this will never end
together me and you
