There's something here to hide
Though you know just where to find me
Excuses pile high as I plan my escape
Glimpse as you're passin' by
Safe from the stale existence
Much to your surprise
My embarrassment
I've come to resent

Fortunately I'll be leaving this place
Serve years beyond anyone could take
Made a fool of myself
Watching them climb
While the others jumped ship
I stayed behind

And the distance you made
Linked to how little you make
And distance follows bitterness and failure to concentrate
On how little you care
You care about this place
And how little you care

It's all in the way you place each phrase
Do it delicately and watch the pace
When twisting the truth, distract with your hands
It's all in the way, it's all in the way

Now that I'm inside
Sweating through winters protection
One glance you'll recognize all my failed attempts
And in the same exchange
The sudden realization
Not one thing has changed I've come to expect

And the distance you made
Linked to how little you make
And distance follows bitterness and failure to
concentrate
On how little you care

You care about this place
And how little you care

It's all in the way you place each phrase
Do it delicately and watch the pace
When twisting the truth, distract with your hands
It's all in the way, it's all in the way

I've warned you
I've warned you
I've warned you not to
I've warned you
I've warned you
I've warned you not to go

It's all in the way you place each phrase
Do it delicately and watch the pace
When twisting the truth, distract with your hands
It's all in the way, it's all in the way

(it's all in the way)
Barely alive, exaggerating
Just wasting time, you're so complacent
(it's all in the way)
It's all in the way
(it's all in the way)
All in the way

(it's all in the way)
(it doesn't make a difference)
It's all in the way you place each phrase
(it's all in the way)
(it doesn't make a difference)
Do it delicately and watch the pace
(it's all in the way)
(it doesn't make a difference)
When twisting the truth, distract with your hands
(it's all in the way)
(it doesn't make a difference)
It's all in the way, it's all in the way

(it's all in the way)
(it doesn't make a difference)
Barely alive, exaggerating
(it's all in the way)
(it doesn't make a difference)
Just wasting time, you're so complacent
(it's all in the way)
(it doesn't make a difference)
It's all in the way

(it's all in the way)
(it doesn't make a difference)
It's all in the way

It doesn't make a difference
