I've been here too long. I need to get gone
I need to find my piece of mind
You say life is boring, I know
So tell me your story, let's go
I want to find out what
This love is all about

I think you need someone, I think I need someone too
How 'bout you, I think that'll do

Well come on over and show me how
You're going to love me baby

Come on now
Come on and take your time with me
Come on and take your time.

And when I find my pride
I'll let you know, I'll let you know
Tell me what's next yeah come on baby
Put me to the test, let's go
I want to find out what
This love is all about

I think you need someone, I think I need someone too
How 'bout you, I think that'll do

Come on now
Come on and take your time with me
Come on and take your time.
