Trouble, where have you been all my life?
Always surrender when I should stand-up and fight.
Get out; you shouldn't have come back again.
Regret shouldn't be planned.
I should have learnt to stay clear.

Cold, cold, cold, apply the pressure 'till I'm on my knees!
Oh-Oh Oh~
Strangle-hold, apply the pressure 'till I feel the squeeze!
No more moderation in infatuation, you got a squeeze
on me!
Pretend I got the power make me say it louder, you got a squeeze on me!

'May care, young and ambitious, but that combination you make malicious to me.

Cold, cold, cold, apply the pressure 'till I'm on my knees!
Oh-Oh Oh~
Strangle-hold, apply the pressure 'till I feel the squeeze!
No more moderation in infatuation, you got a squeeze
on me!
Pretend I got the power make me say it louder, you got
a squeeze on me!
No more moderation in infatuation, you got a squeeze
on me!
Pretend I got the power make me say it louder, you got
a squeeze on me!

Silent, your lies are like diamonds.
They shimmer above you.
You'll be the death of me. (Silent, your lies are like diamonds)
I convinced myself I don't understand.
Results of the actions upon my hand, there's no magic wonder for me!

(Ah-Ah Oh-oh) Ohh-Ohhh-Ohh oh (Ah-Ah Oh-OH) Ah-Ah
Oh-Oh Ooh!

No more moderation in infatuation, you got a squeeze
on me!

Pretend I got the power make me say it louder, you got a squeeze on me!

No more moderation in infatuation, you got a squeeze
on me! Yeah!

Pretend I got the power make me say it louder, you got a squeeze on me~!
