I start out at number four, then I think I'd lower it a bit - to three Put the second on the max, never meant a lot to me

Many said they would come and I will surely lose myself to them giving all my soul to the beans and I will surely spice them all

I will keep you well informed, all of my friends will soon be a part of our home

I'll be seated on your right there will be a dinner here tonight I will insist to go there for some time and if I go there - would you still be mine?

I've got another colour on, blue is for special times this one is red mixed favoured tape of mine, setting the table for nine

Many said they would come
and I will surely lose myself to them
giving all my soul to the beans
and I will surely spice them all

I will keep you well informed,
all of my friends will soon be a part of our home

I'll be seated on your right
there will be a dinner here tonight
I will insist to go there for some time
and if I go there - would you still be mine?

I will insist to go there for some time
and if I go there - would you still be mine?
