Smile bright for the photograph,
Don't show the world your better half;
Too many times, time is wasted
Live your life, you'd better not be faking.
We're soaked, don't bother mediocre
Time shares with life being a loner
Life bomb goes off if you can screw it
Got your chance now, only you can do it

Chorus:

Someday, someday, someday wake up
We are more than who we are,
We are magic, we are stars
Grab the key beyond these bars,
And as far as a mind can see
We are more than who we are;
We are free, free

You've got an empty road ahead
Don't hear the voices in your head;
You're not a loser you're a winner,
You're not spent, so you're not a beginner

Chorus

Someday, someday
I know you'll wake up
We are more than who we are,
We are magic, we are stars.
Grab the key beyond these bars,
And as far as a mind can see,
We are more than who we are;
We are free, free

Everybody tries to push you down
They want to put you on some shelf
No one is gonna hold your hand-
You're gonna have to learn to help yourself
And you will, 'cause you can,
If you don't listen to them.

We are more than who we are;

We are stars, stars...

whoo, whoo, whoo
whoo, whoo, whoo

Chorus

We are magic, we are stars
Grab the key beyond these bars,
And as far as a mind can see
We are more than who we are;
We are free, free
We are free.
