She is a mountain to brave
She's an ocean wave
She is the wind in the eves
She's my silent ache
Her gypsy eyes are on me
What do they want me to say?
She is a fountain to wade
To seal my burning fate.

She called my name but I was already on my knees
Call back the tide before the full moon steals you away
Wayward angel in candlelight you've got devil eyes
No one night stand is ever gonna satisfy
I've been so lonely. Now I've been hypnotized
Baby, If only you could give me just one more night.

Oh my, you cast a spell on me.

Wayfarin' stranger been around city to sea
Roll back the tide before the full moon steals you away
No other life I'm gonna live vicariously
Sweet child you got the musicâ€¦
She's looking for a heart, looking for a brand new start
She's looking for a manâ€¦
Gypsy woman got big, big plans.
