Have your lips graced another's yet,
Or am I the only one?
Every time I try to speak to you
Those are the thoughts that run.
Say something else, girl
I don't wanna have to leave.
Our communication
Is hardly what it used to be.

When can I claim you to be
My own so selfishly
When can I claim you to be
My own, my only

I want nothing more than our features
To collide.
Can tell this is gonna be one of many
Disappointing nights.
Traces of you are so minimal
A black and white bar photo booth with us.

When can I claim you to be
My own so selfishly
When can I claim you to be
My own, my only

I have only one week to make you mine
And I may never see you again.
It's not only for me,
It's not only for me,
There's a little bit,
A little bit here for you
But I'm willing to wait,
I'm willing

Daytime is no longer the hours spent
Oh lit by sunlight rather than the hours to obsess
And the night is far worse
'Cause I know you're alone with her and
Thoughts of, of us have been deserted.
It will never be the same.

I will never be the same again.
Oh, it will never be the same again

I have only one week to make you mine
And I may never see you again.
The time is few and far between
There is someone else who needs,
There is someone else who needs your attention.
But I'm willing to wait,
I'm willing to wait.
I'm willing to wait,
I'm willing to wait.
