Let's leave this urban territory
Won't settle less, our children could be
So much better off, sacrifice then loss
Just two hundred miles out east

Smothering the sun's evening glare
Dispersing the colors as I stare
The rays that will spread and spray
From out, oh in between my hands, oh in between

Radiate, radiate, radiate, not only for,
Radiate, radiate, radiate, not only for you.
Not only for you.

If I could be as strong as
My father was with us then
There's no reason to doubt
Resentment is out
Absolutely out of the question

Smothering the sun's evening glare
Dispersing the colors as I stare
The rays that will spread and spray
From out, oh in between my hands, oh in between

Radiate, radiate, radiate, not only for,
Radiate, radiate, radiate, not only

This life we had chosen
Is eating you up from the inside
I'm not asking
I am begging
Why don't you realize?
Say it in your own way
I know you wish we had stayed
Say it in your own way
I know you wish we had stayed

Radiate, radiate, radiate, not only for,
Radiate, radiate, radiate, not only for you.
