Hanging out in the run
By the station where you
Wanted to know
How the world turned so plain

Told you and you took it to heart
You said someday I'll be someone
Oh I'm gonna be such a star

[Chorus]
And sleep with your eyes open
Try to keep from choking
On those words that the wrote for you

Cities and state lines are blind
By the road side as the Exits collide,
and the numbers are to new heights

A rest stop here a couple of beers
Oh here's to new friends and a light big career
And you drown in your sorrows in fire and wine
And you wonder were you went wrong all the time

[Chorus]
Sleep with your eyes open
Try to keep from choking
On those words that the wrote for you

And all the things you do...

All the words that your saying
And the flowers you've laid
Are all falling backwards

The places and names
The fortune and fame
Are all falling backwards

Your still two months from home
You feel so alone

Its all falling backwards

Falling backwards

Falling backwards

[Chorus]

And sleep with your eyes open

Try to keep from choking

On those words that the wrote for you

And all the things they do to Make you over

Know that when its over

Ill be here looking back at you

When all the drugs fall through
