"My Own Urine"

The dry air holds a distinct fascination
For those who are unfamiliar
For those who are unfamiliar with any other way of living and I can see by their eyes
Can see by your eyes
Can see by your eyes
But I can't see
I can't see by my eyes

I remember
The morning I awoke
I remember, but not very well
Marinating in a pool, a puddle of blood and urine
My own urine and
Someone else's blood
My own urine
Someone else's blood
and I can see by their eyes
I can see by your eyes
I can see by your eyes
But I can't see
I can't see by my eyes

That lady so ugly
She looks like Dra-cu-la
