Well, I don't know just how to tell you this in a telephone call from so far

That I'm never coming back, say you don't understand
One day you'll understand why I'm never coming back
So mother, mother, please believe like I believed in you for everything

I tried and tried again but I never could conceive
What you wanted so, so badly
Now I'm drowning in my dreams
And I don't know just where I'm going but they

They don't know me yet, the day will soon come
They don't know my best, the day will soon come
Sure as the sun has set the day will soon come
Yeah the day, the day, the day will soon come

And what I really want, what I really, really want
Is what I haven't got yet that's what I really want
Am I the only one? Don't everybody want
To try to get, get, get what they've been dreaming of?

Some people say I don't know my way
I can't find my place and my dreams are much too big
For the head they're in, when you gonna give it all up?
Say I'm stranded in my own world, I'm going nowhere
I thought you knew me better

They don't know me yet, the day will soon come
They don't know my best, the day will soon come
Sure as the sun has set the day will soon come
Yeah the day, the day, the day will soon come

My baby is crying
Said he can't compete with all the fire in my belly
And the fire is rousing to the words I speak
Barely express the thing I mean so deep

Boy, I hear what you've been playing at your radio
But I've been bumping something special through my head phones
You can say I'm dumb, say what I'm doing is wrong

Say it at the top of your lungs, baby don't you underestimate me

They don't know me yet, the day will soon come
They don't know me, they don't know my best, the day will soon come
Sure as the sun has set the day will soon come
Yeah the day, the day, the day will soon come

The day, the day, the day, the day, the day
The day, the day, the day will soon come
I'm here in chains, I'm waiting, waiting
Waiting, waiting, waiting, the day will soon come

The day, the day, the day, the day, the day
The day, the day, the day will soon come
Yeah the day, the day, the day will soon come
