Somewhere out there in the world
Some second floor apartment
Under a pink paper moon
12 AM supermarket
Jamming down some lonely road

Laying awake in your bed, dreaming

And I wonder where you are
Tonight, tonight, tonight
Yeah, I wonder where you are
Tonight, tonight

Try to get that subway at dawn
Putting in 12 hours again
Feeling like you've run out of time
Feeling like you're starting again
Trying to get that weight of your back
Gotta get somebody who understands

I wonder where you are tonight
Tonight, tonight
Yeah, I wonder where you are
Tonight, tonight

I'm still in the stars, land of the bright
One by one gonna stand here alive
I'm here on the floor, dance in the dark
Lights go on and I wonder where you are
I wonder where you are
I wonder where you are

I'll be on top of the crowd
I'll be the queen of my throne
You'll hear me laughing out loud
Gonna wrap myself up and go
I got this cross around my neck
And I got somebody to hold me
But I wonder where you are tonight
Tonight

I'm still in the stars, land of the bright
One by one gonna stand here alive
I'm here on the floor, dance in the dark
Lights go on and I wonder where you are
Tonight I wonder where you are
Tonight I wonder where you are

I'm still in the stars, land of the bright
One by one gonna stand here alive
I'm here on the floor, dance in the dark
Lights go on and I wonder where you are
I wonder where you are
I wonder where you are
