penny, why did you go away i thought that you would stay forever you said, your love for me is dead now you've messed up my head but i remember

you told me that i was your dream come true (oh, oh, oh)
but you woke up and now you say we're through (oh, oh, oh)
my friends are tellin me, hey man leave it be But i'm cryin every night your not with me penny, was it something that i said Did i forget to make my bed or fail you so smart, is he why we are apart did he run into your heart, and derail you well i gave you all i had and so much more (oh, oh, oh) you gave me one last kiss and closed the door (oh, oh, oh)

my friends are tellin me, hey man leave it be but i'm crying everynight your not with me well i took your letters and i ripped them up (oh, oh, oh) its all my fault i acted like a chump (oh, oh, oh)

my friends are tellin me, hey man leave it be
but i'm cryin everynight your not with me
