When stinky was seven years old
Did everything he was told
And tried his best to fit in with the crowd

Got picked last for schoolyard games
Never called him by his name
Always fell short of makin' his mom proud

Now Stinky's got it all planned out
He'll show them now that he's no clown
'Cuz Stinky's all grown up but he's still aggravatin'

Stinky's all grown up
But all his friends still hate him
Stinky's all grown up
And he's tired of waiting for his day to come

Most kids have toys, Stinky had rocks
Couldn't seem to match his socks
The dirt marks on his right arm stayed the same

Went to summer camp each year
Carried with him just one fear
That someone would show up that knew his name
