

The Hurt Process

"Come Home"

Tortured me, now you go, now you go
Leaving slowly, like the snow, like the snow
With lies you told, lies you told melted us Lies you told, lies you told, lies you told, words that scold

Run for you know, come home, run far
From here, far from here, far from here
Run for you know, come home, run far
From here, far from here, far from here

Secrets drop, now you go, now you go
Turn away, turn away with the winds that blow
Silently, softly, softly, silent, silent, softly
Softly, silent, silent, softly

Now you go, run for you know, come home, run far
From here, far from here, far from here
Run for you know, come home, run far
From here, far from here, far from here

(Run for you know)
Take your hatred for me
(Run for you know)
Take your spreading disease
(Run for you know)
Take your hatred for me
(Run for you)

Run for you know, come home, run far
From here, far from here, far from here
Run for you know, come home, run far
From here, far from here, far from here

Far from here, far from here
(Run for you know, from here)
Far from here, far from here
Far from here, far from here

Come home, run far, come home, run far
(Run for you know, from here)
Come home, run far, far from here

Far from here, far from here
