

Hot Lies, The "Break Away"

Visit "Break Away" on MotoLyrics.com tonight has been so criminal where do we go from here to make a quick getaway take your aim and fire

make your mistakes and fly without goodbyes
holding on for life
when we've lost all control why run just stay forever break away with me tonight matches and a can of kerosene
to set this street ablaze scared and terrified get me out alive
no mistakes this time
I never thought we'd stay forever
