

Hot Lies, The "Down & Out"

Cracks in the ceiling,
The dark comes in.
But something in the silence,
I don't believe in.
This emergency,
Has got the best of me.
And if nothing lasts forever,
I won't believe it.

Down, down, down and out and,
Can't stop too far gone now.
In the rear-view mirror,
I watch you melt away.

When the lights go down.
Are you calling me a liar,
If I never say I miss you too?
Are you gonna leave a light on,
When it's over?
When the lights go down.
Are you calling me a liar,
If I never say I miss you too?
Are you gonna leave a light on,
When it's over?
When the lights go..

Down and forgotten,
The floorboards creak.
The killer in the corner,
He hears a heartbeat.
If I'm the accident,
Then you're the ambulance.
And if nothing lasts forever,
Now I believe it.

Down, down, down and out and,
Can't stop too far gone now.
In the rear-view mirror,
I watch you melt away.

When the lights go down.

Are you calling me a liar,
If I never say I miss you too?
Are you gonna leave a light on,
When it's over?
When the lights go down.
Are you calling me a liar,
If I never say I miss you too?
Are you gonna leave a light on,
When it's over?
When the lights go down.
When the lights go down.
When the lights go down.

Ha, ha!

Down and out..
Catch me if you care.
Down and out..
When the lights go down.
Catch me if you care.
Down and out..
When the lights go down.

Down and out..
Down and out..

Down, down, down and out and,
Can't stop too far gone now.
In the rear-view mirror,
I watch you melt away.

Are you calling me a liar,
If I never say I miss you too?
Are you gonna leave a light on,
When it's over?
When the lights go down.
Are you calling me a liar,
If I never say I miss you too?
Are you gonna leave a light on,
When it's over?
When the lights go down.
Are you calling me a liar,
If I never say I miss you too?
When the lights go down.
Are you gonna leave a light on,
When it's over?
When it's over?
When it's over?
When it's over?
