"Calling All Lovers"

It takes a whole lot of trust
It takes a velvet touch
It takes the selfless sunday
With reflection on monday
It takes what words can't say
Until your inside is grey
It takes a shameless promoter
And a worthy follower

Are you willing?
Who am i kidding?
Calling all lovers
With keep me honors
Am i worthy for your title of love?

It takes dedication
When there's no motivation
When there's no new sensation
You just dive in cold
It takes the will of two
It takes the hurt of wonder
It takes passion and thunder
And the truth that you both hold

Are you willing?
Who am i kidding?
Calling all lovers
With keep me honors
Am i worthy for your title of love?
