Rise and fall
The trees are turning
My whole world mourns
And burns for you
You left me reeling
Without any feeling

I'll never be what you perceive
I'm nobody
I can't hear you
I never thought that you were so sought
I'm nobody
I wish i had your

Crowd of friends
I never thought you'd Trade me in for Them
If i'm just helpless
You're plain ruthless

I'll never be what you perceive
I'm nobody
I can't hear you
I never thought that you were so sought
I'm nobody
I wish i had your

Is it a crime for me to feel betrayed?
I don't want to live this way anymore
If I had a dime for everytime you said
"get over it"
