I could never love someone
Never really love someone
The way I did you
But I had to walk away
Couldn't face another day
But still I think of you
Judging by the look in your eyes
It's useless to try starting over
And though it's good bye

I'm never far away
From your arms
Never far away
You just think of me
Your heart beats so strong
But if love treats you wrong anyway
I'm never far away

Couldn't see eye to eye
Girl I'd rather die
Than live with you
Magic in a single word
Everything you've ever heard
The meaning was true
And if it ever comes undone
Maybe I could be the one
That you come running to
If you stumble and fall

I'm never far away
From your arms
Never far away
You just think of me
Your heart beats so strong
But if love treats you wrong anyway
I'm never far away

We can talk about it
No need to shout about
'Cause I'm watching over you

I'm never far away
From your arms
Never far away
You just think of me
Your heart beats so strong
But if love treats you wrong anyway
I'm never far away
