Do You hear me?
Do you see me

Broken on my knees
Yes I am Broken
On my knees

And I know my God you See
This sinful heart in me
But nothing I ever do
Can change Your love so true

You love me all the same

And what am I
Compared to You
Yes what am I Lord
Compared to You

I am nothing

And I know my God you See
This sinful heart in me
But nothing I ever do
Can change Your love so true

You love me all the same

And as I stand in this world
I'm so afraid
Of slipping away
But I feel your touch I feel your love
Come right on me and pick me up

And I know...

That You love me all the same
