These miles and miles that keep me from your heart
Seem to grow just a little bit farther away Each day
These nights and nights that leave me chasing stars for you
Just seem to sweep me out to space
Untraced
But count me in I can't pretend
That I'm letting go
Hey there girl so nice to see you Don't play games You know
I need you bad So bad
Oh too tired to say it's getting old
Let's take a walk Let's take a walk out in the cold I'll keep you warm I'll keep you warm Just let me get a little bit closer to you From coast to coast I'll make this toast
Sing songs for you just to watch you sail away
From me But please don't leave You're a part of me I'm never letting go
All the world can't stop me now I'm all for you all of me now
So come and take my hand tonight I'm lost for you I'm lost in time All the world can't keep me from Your heart I'm taking every part There's no one left for us to find Cause I am yours and you are Mine
