October Falls
Early this year
November calls
So clean and clear

In time I will lie
Oh so perfectly still
I'm tired of breathing
But I always will

Hold her steady now
Hold her close to your heart
Never knowing how it felt
To be so free
Someone rescue me
Cause I've been deceived

Break break and you're cutting me so clean
Tired tired of giving in to the same things
Up up and away we go again
Up up and away we go in flames

Away we go in flames

And I cross my heart I hope to die
The needle hurts but I won't cry
I swear I'm doing better every day
But don't believe in every word I say

Oh it hurts this water in my lungs
Oh how could I think I was so strong

Mayday all the sirens are sounding
Oh God could You save me from drowning
Up up and away we go again
Up up and away we go...

You're cutting me so clean

There's gotta be more than this
There's gotta be something we have missed
There's gotta be more than this

There's gotta be something we have

October fell
